Communications Potential's Privacy Policy

This privacy policy explains how Communications Potential uses the personal data we collect from you when you use our website.

What data do we collect?

Communications Potential collects the following data:

- Personal identification information (Name, email address, phone number, postal address etc.)
- Any feedback you provide and questions you raise voluntarily through our feedback form on the "Contact us" page

How do we collect your data?

You directly provide Communications Potential with most of the data we collect. We collect data and process data when you:

- Register your details and provide comments online
- Use or view our website via your browser's cookies

How will we use your data?

Communications Potential collects your data so that we can:

- Keep you informed about projects and services that may be of interest to you

How do we store your data?

In all circumstances, Communications Potential stores your data with appropriate security measures in place to ensure it is protected.

Marketing

Communications Potential would like to keep you informed about projects, services and industry news that we believe may be of interest to you.

If you have agreed to receive updates, you may always opt out at a later date.

You have the right at any time to stop Communications Potential from contacting you.

What are your data protection rights?

Communications Potential would like to make sure you are fully aware of all of your data protection rights. Every user is entitled to the following:

Cookies

Cookies are text files placed on your computer to collect standard Internet log information and visitor behaviour information. When you visit our website, we may collect information from you automatically through cookies or similar technology

For further information, visit allaboutcookies.org.

How do we use cookies?

Communications Potential uses cookies in a range of ways to improve your experience on our website, including:

- Keeping you signed in
- Understanding how you use our website

What types of cookies do we use?

Our website uses a maximum of four different cookies which are purely functional whilst the session is active. Two of them expire 30 minutes after the last page they look at is accessed.

- Functionality – Communications Potential uses these cookies to recognise you as an unidentified individual as you browse our website throughout your session. These could include what language you prefer and location you are in. A mix of first-party and third-party cookies are used.

How to manage cookies

You can set your browser not to accept cookies, and the above website tells you how to remove cookies from your browser. However, in a few cases, some of our website features may not function as a result.

Privacy policies of other websites

The Communications Potential website contains links to other websites. Our privacy policy applies only to our website, so if you click on a link to another website, you should read their privacy policy.

Changes to our privacy policy

Communications Potential keeps its privacy policy under regular review and places any updates on this web page. This privacy policy was last updated on 26 July 2019.
